Silvia Vela Ruiz is a lawyer specializing in corporate law, compliance, and highly regulated industries such as aerospace, defense, and automotive. She combines a strong legal background with an MBA from the University of Strathclyde and executive education programs at ESADE and IE Business School. With over 25 years of experience, Silvia has led complex projects and multidisciplinary teams in demanding environments.

She is currently the founding partner of LegAire, a firm focused on strategic legal consulting for technical sectors, and serves as Of Counsel at ACT LEGAL. Previously, she was Corporate and Legal Director for Spain and Portugal at Babcock International Group, where she also acted as Compliance Officer and board member of its Portuguese subsidiaries.

Her career includes key roles at companies such as Renault España and Mondelez, as well as positions within the public administration. Silvia is also a lecturer at ICADE and Universidad Europea de Madrid, teaching subjects such as Corporate Compliance and Aeronautical Law.

She sits on the Board of Directors of Ellas Vuelan Alto, leading its regional expansion, and is a member of the Madrid Bar Association, the Spanish Association of Aeronautical and Space Law, and the Spanish Association of Women Executives and Board Members. Silvia has published articles on aeronautical regulations, information security, and compliance in specialized journals.
